Day 2

Hanoi's Traditional Craft Villages Exploration

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch | Stay: Hotel in Hanoi | Transport: Private vehicle transfers

Today's itinerary delves into the rich artistic heritage surrounding Hanoi, taking you beyond the city's bustling center to traditional craft villages. The morning begins with a visit to Lang Non, a village renowned for its intricate conical hat making. Here, you'll observe skilled artisans meticulously shaping simple materials into Vietnam's iconic headwear, witnessing the precision and dedication involved in preserving this cultural symbol.

Following a lunch featuring authentic regional cuisine, the afternoon continues with an excursion to Quang Phu Cau village. This location is famous for its vibrant incense stick production, where bundles of drying incense create striking visual displays under the sun. These handcrafted items are integral to spiritual practices across Vietnam. The tour then offers a choice between visiting Ha Thai lacquer village to learn about the ancient art of lacquerware, or exploring To He, where colorful glutinous rice dough is sculpted into playful figurines. Throughout the day, engage with local craftspeople, gaining insight into their centuries-old techniques and appreciating the enduring beauty of Vietnam's cultural identity.

Activities: Visit Lang Non to observe conical hat making

Day 3

Hands-On Artisan Workshops & Culinary Creations

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch | Stay: Hotel in Hanoi | Transport: Private vehicle transfers

This day offers a deeper dive into Vietnam's artisanal world, beginning with a culinary experience. In the morning, you'll step into local kitchens to learn the art of making traditional Vietnamese cakes. Discover the secrets behind symbolic treats like 'banh phu the' (husband and wife cake), 'banh khuc' from Lang Diem, and 'banh te' from Lang Cho. These recipes are steeped in cultural significance and flavor, and you'll have the pleasure of tasting your own freshly made creations.

The afternoon shifts focus to creative workshops in various craft villages. Unleash your artistic side by shaping pottery at Phu Lang ceramic village, where you can try your hand at the potter's wheel. Next, engage with the vivid tradition of Dong Ho folk paintings, using natural pigments to create colorful scenes. You'll also learn the delicate process of making Giay Do, a traditional Vietnamese handmade paper. These immersive experiences not only reveal the stories behind each craft but also provide you with unique, handmade souvenirs to cherish as memories of your journey.
