Day 2

Mai Chau Valley Scenic Drive & Cultural Immersion

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch | Stay: Avana Retreat

Your day begins with a morning pick-up from your Hanoi Old Quarter hotel, setting off on a picturesque journey to Mai Chau. The drive unfolds through winding mountain roads, revealing breathtaking vistas of verdant valleys and traditional stilt houses. Along the route, you'll observe the daily routines of the Muong and Thai ethnic communities, whose villages are harmoniously integrated with the surrounding mountains and rice fields.

A stop at Thung Khe Pass provides a perfect vantage point to admire the panoramic beauty of Mai Chau Valley. This location also hosts a small roadside market where Muong ethnic people sell fresh produce, local delicacies, and handmade crafts. Lunch will be served at a local restaurant, with vegetarian options available upon request. In the afternoon, you have the option to join a guided cycling tour through the terraced rice fields, offering a deeper understanding of local customs (additional cost applies). Alternatively, enjoy free time for independent cycling, walking through the village, or souvenir shopping.

Your evening culminates with an authentic Thai-style dinner, a culinary highlight of the region. For groups larger than five, the experience is enhanced with a traditional Thai dance performance and the chance to partake in "Ruou Can," a communal rice wine enjoyed through bamboo straws.
